[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

Helps us understand our students and invest our resources where we can have the greatest impact; we need to encourage our students to attend campus events; tutors need to know this as well as other students who work with incoming students; first year course instructors and orientation staff can use this information to understand incoming students.

[illegible]

Share and use these data widely and allow staff and faculty to use the data to make decisions that then benefit Hope students; use this information in cocurricular program development; using these data helps us reach our aspirations of being a top, liberal arts Christian College; these data inform training of our student leaders.