

Courses Mapped to Outcomes

Students will demonstrate an interdisciplinary and cross-cultural understanding of the creation, meaning, function, and distribution of social norms in human societies, both past and present.	REL 100 Fierce & Faithful Men	Disability Gender & Culture	IDS 174 Marriage in Mod Age	PHIL 195: Sexual Ethics	HIST 200 Peace Mvmnts	REL 264 Christian Feminism	PHIL 295 Phil of Race, Ability, & Gender	DAN 320 Dance History & Criticism	HIST 352 Women & Gender History	HIST 357 US Cultural History	ART 360 Bodies in Medieval Art	MIN 395 Conflict, Culture & Church	IDS 492 Male, Female, Human
Students will demonstrate an interdisciplinary and cross-cultural understanding of the creation, meaning, function, and distribution of social norms in human societies, both past and present.			I/R			-		-	-	-			-
competence oral expression within the field of women's and gender studies.								I/R	-	-	-		M
Students will demonstrate an awareness and interpersonal skills needed to be competent global citizens.								M					M
Students will demonstrate praxis on topics related to women, gender, and/or sexuality.		I/R							-	-	M
Students will develop a deeper understanding of the intersection of feminism and the historic Christian faith.									-			-	-

Program Learning Outcomes Assessment Tools

Program Name: Women's and Gender Studies

Date: 5-1-2020 (Rev 10-1-2021)

Knowledge, skill, or behavior students demonstrate upon program completion	Measurement Tool	Time(s) of Program for Assessment	Target	Review
--	------------------	-----------------------------------	--------	--------